Altchie Declares That He Firmly Believes That Welsh Will Never Give Him a Chance to Regain the World's Lightweight Title.

(The New York Evening World.) VILLIE RITCHIE, home from London, says that Freddie Weish will probably never two him a chance to regain his lightsight title. It is the firm opinion of the former champion that Weish sn't want to fight him again.

Those agreements Welsh says be will insist on when we fight again are all jokes," said Ritchie after his arrival. "If Weish insists I do 133 pounds at him make that demand of every one else be meets. I tipped 134 for the Aympia fight. Weish, with a great Bort, did 135. Where does he figure anding I weigh 183 for a return satch? Willie was certain he should have secsived nothing worse than a draw for the battle he made against Weish.

They're strong for points on the close side, continued Ritchie, relating how he lost his title. "It's a point lest if you go back three steps, counts for nothing. In the last roun", which weakened and covered up to save himself. He kept going in some mysterious manner. He best over so himself. He kept going in some weight outlined to the couldn't get a chan-to land a seach."

seeing everyone. To substantiate is assertion Ritchie drew a picture of the scenes in the Olympia club immediately after the finish of his fight with Welsh.

"When the final bell sounded," said litchie, "Referee Corri walked away is ene side of the ring. I went to my corper, Welsh to his. In a few secessed the ring filled with friends of Welsh who had come down from Males and bet heavily on their county man. They all cheered loudly for Welsh. There was bediam in the ring. ## ABOUT COLLAPSE OF THE FEDERAL LEAGUE Brooklyn Club Representative Says Independents Are in Field to Stay.

"Absolute rot!" was John M. Ward's answer to a hysterical story that appeared to-day purporting to show that the Federal League was on the verge of collapse. The business manager of the Brooklyn Club didn't think the yarn was of sufficient importance to warrant a denial. Asked for an opinion on the true conditions in the outlaw league, the old-time Giant replied that the independents were far from collapsing.

"The St. Louis club," said Ward. which has suffered the most from lack of attendance, len't in a feeble financial state. Only the other day the club gave La Rue Kirby, a young star in the Southern Association, a cash bonus of $4,000 for signing. That doesn't look as if the St. Louis club was so badly hit.

"President Gilmore's present trip through the East was not made for the purpose of enlisting financial aid the purpose of enlisting financial aid as the story intimated. Gilmore is making an inspection of the clubs, the same as any other league President. He remained in New York but three days, last Saturday, Sunday and Monday. He played golf with me the greater part of Monday and then lett for Buffalo.

"No, there's absolutely no truth in the report that the Federal League is going to give up the fight," concluded Ward.
